Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Passionate Pilgrim: By Shakspeare, Marlowe, Barnfield, Griffin, and Other Writers Unknown, the First Quarto, 1599, a Facsimile in Photo-Lithography The Passionate Pilgrim was first published in the tiny Quarto 1599 reproduced in the present volume. Elizabethan lovers of song must have associated Shakspeare s poems with the White Greyhound in Paul s Churchyard, for at the house bearing that sign, Venus and Adonis in 1593, and Lucrece in 1594, made their appearance; now, six years after its original publication, the demand for Shakspeare s earliest poem continued brisk, so that Leake, the owner of the Greyhound, deemed it necessary to issue the Venus in a new edition - that edition of which two copies, and no more, remain; one of these drawn from a recess of Tunes wallet in the autumn of 1867, by Mr. Charles Edmonds, when examining certain old books at Lamport Hall, Nottinghamshire, and reprinted under his editor-ship in 1870. Any one with a fancy for writing a very Imaginary Conversation, yet with an undoubted foundation in fact, may choose this...
